CONCEPT

INSPIRATION

A stylish, stress-free solution from start to finish.

Old Dominion Furniture Co. is dedicated to setting a new standard for commercial furniture fabricators everywhere. And when it comes to the customer experience, that means providing unparalleled service, quality support, and personalized care.

We are here to serve as your trusted partner from concept to installation, providing you with the peace of mind that comes from choosing a reliable, customer-focused business. If your project involves a diverse team that includes designers, architects, contractors, food-service equipment dealers, and others, we are happy to work with each and every individual as needed.

Our process is designed to free you from furniture worries, streamlining sourcing and providing you with a turnkey solution.

1. First, we'll tap into your design inspiration during a consultation. When you meet with us for a consultation, you can look forward to a productive conversation about your vision for the space, ideas or aesthetics that inspire you, and your non-negotiables. We'll chat style, dimensions, goals, and budget, so that we can collaborate with you (and your team) to develop the perfect furniture package.

2. Then, we dive into designing and building your furniture. We create shop drawings, field verify, and source materials, keeping you in the loop every step of the way. Once you're completely satisfied with the design plan, our skilled craftsmen begin building your pieces at our Virginia headquarters.
3. Once your furniture is complete, we deliver it directly to you — and we can install it as well. Finally, one of our favorite parts of the process arrives: we get to deliver your completed pieces to your project site, and you can see your vision take shape right in front of you. If needed, we also provide installation services. Our team will coordinate with site contacts to ensure proper fit and function, so that everything goes according to plan.

Bring your vision to life, down to the very last detail.

Every space—and customer—is unique, and we firmly believe that the furniture should be tailored accordingly. Rather than settling for options that are only “good enough,” let Old Dominion Furniture Co. create the furniture you truly need to realize your design vision.

Our selection of made-to-order products ranges from semi-custom to fully-custom, and flexibility is one of our core design principles.

- We offer a virtually limitless variety of colors and finishing options, so you can easily find choices to align with the space’s aesthetic.
- Our team can source upholstery materials from any vendor, or we can utilize customer supplied materials (COM) if you already have something in mind.

- Options include design details and add-ons that personalize your pieces and incorporate added charm and comfort.
- Pieces can be modified to accommodate a specific vision or goal (for example, many customers appreciate the ease of making changes to booth designs).

As you explore our catalog of offerings, keep in mind that you aren’t limited to the styles you see. Our team of craftsmen and design consultants have the skill and experience to start from scratch and create something completely new for you—so let’s chat.

Reduced lead times and superior efficiency

Old Dominion Furniture Co. utilizes regionally-sourced materials, and all our products are domestically-manufactured. For our customers, that translates into shorter lead times and less stress about procurement and timelines. Even though our furniture is made to order, our factory is always prepared with supplies to start production at a moment's notice. You can be confident that our team will go above and beyond to make sure you have what you need, when you need it.

Affordable design without compromise

Designing a hospitality space is often a balancing act of functionality, budget, and aesthetics, but that doesn't mean you should have to compromise on quality or style. Old Dominion Furniture Co. has perfected an approach to made-to-order furniture, marrying affordability and handcrafted quality. Our product line includes options at all price points, including an array of budget-friendly styles and value engineering opportunities. We'll help you check all the boxes: budget, quality, and vision.

Distressed Ash

Naturally distressed for an authentically rustic look

Distressed Ash

Our distressed ash table tops add distinct character to any space, each one featuring the beautifully unique knots, worm holes, and saw kerf marks that only come from naturally-distressed wood (something you won't find with manufactured distressing). Similar to our red oak table tops, the distressed ash boasts natural color variation and exceptional grain patterns, both creating a stunning sense of movement and visual interest.

PLANK: table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

NOT OFFERED IN BUTCHER BLOCK CONSTRUCTION

Carbonized Oak

Carbonized by our craftsmen for something truly unique

Carbonized Oak

Our carbonized oak table tops are a stylish statement piece - but what they say is entirely up to you. The unique solid oak table tops are carbonized by hand, so no two are exactly alike. Using our signature torching technique, our craftsmen add attractive depth and contrast, pulling out the grain pattern and making each table top completely unique. With all of the benefits of our standard oak table tops and the high-impact effects of carbonization, the carbonized oak table tops offer the best of both worlds.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

BUTCHER BLOCK: butcher block table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards cut to equal widths of 1-1/4". Boards are glued together with the end grain of the boards showing, creating a linear look and extremely strong surface.

Walnut

Rich, warm tones and a luxurious feel

Walnut

Walnut is a beautiful balance of luxury and function, and our solid walnut table tops show off the best characteristics of this premium specie. Often a first choice for formal settings and high-end furniture, walnut is a dark hardwood valued for its color, strength, and distinctly straight grain. The natural luster of walnut provides an attractive sheen, while the varied brown shades of the heartwood bring an element of warmth to a space.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

White Oak

Versatility and strength at their very best

White Oak

From trendy lattes to craft cocktails—and everything in between—solid white oak table tops are a subtly beautiful backdrop to it all. Contrary to what its name might suggest, white oak actually tends to be slightly darker than red oak, with undertones that are beige and brown (compared to the salmon hues of red oak). Like most varieties of oak, solid white oak takes on stains very easily for a smooth, flawless finish.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

Hickory

Homegrown durability
and aesthetic appeal

Hickory

Hickory is an all-American classic, among the strongest and most durable woods native to the U.S. Its dense, hard surface stands up remarkably well in even the most demanding of settings. Our Virginia craftsmen alternate heartwood and sapwood to create an eye-catching, subtly rustic effect with the contrasting shades of light reddish brown and pale, golden-toned brown.

PLANK: Plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

Red Oak

A classic choice with an evergreen style

Red Oak

Whether your space is traditional or contemporary, solid red oak table tops will become a staple in your design. Considered one of the most popular choices for hardwood in the U.S., red oak delivers outstanding value by providing a durable, handsome surface at a relatively moderate price. The straight grain has a coarse, irregular texture for a table top that has both visual and tactile interest.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

Hard Rock Maple

A contemporary look
that's easy to customize

Hard Rock Maple

For a clean, fresh style, our solid maple tops are a go-to favorite. Maple's light, creamy color and smooth, subtle grain is equally well-suited for casual and upscale spaces, especially with a myriad of options for customization. Maple is a highly durable option, so you can be confident it will look equally fabulous for its first and five thousandth use. Staining maple tends to bring out its mineral streaks, enhancing their appearance beautifully.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.

Sapele

Cost-effective luxury
to set your space apart

Sapele

Our solid sapele tops have a golden to reddish-brown color and distinct grain that elevate any space. The interlocked, sometimes wavy grain pairs wonderfully well with sapele's fine, uniform texture and natural luster. Harder and heavier than African mahogany, but similar in color to traditional mahogany, sapele has become a reliable substitute—and a cost effective alternative.

PLANK: plank table tops are fabricated using continuous length boards in random widths ranging from 2-1/4" wide to 8" wide. Boards are selected to highlight grain pattern and create a sense of movement from plank to plank.
